

Last Call! Registration ends on February 15th!

VENOMOUS SNAKE SAFETY

Adaptation Environmental Services presents a one-day, Venomous Snake Safety course. The course provides hands-on training and expertise to help professionals safely work with venomous snakes. Participants will be assessed with a written and skills test to receive a Venomous Snake Safety Certificate.

When: March 2, 3 or 4 2019

Time: 8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Where: Denver, CO

Register

COURSE OUTLINE

- I. Characteristics of venomous snakes of the USA
 - Rattlesnakes
 - Copperheads
 - Cottonmouths
 - Coral Snakes
- II. Snake Ecology and Behavior
- III. Venomous Snake Safety Techniques and First Aid
- IV. Practice with LIVE Non-venomous and Venomous snakes
 - Tools, techniques, and manipulation
 - 1-hook technique
 - 2-hook technique
 - 1-hook-and-tongs technique
 - Containment and labeling
- V. Safety Test Completed By Participants and Certification of Completion

The Venomous Snake Safety Course material was reviewed by and advances the mission of PARC.

This training promotes the conservation of snakes, educates participants about snake biology, and facilitates snake conservation by minimizing negative human-snake interactions.

Last Call! Registration ends on February 15th!

Find out more: adaptationenvironmental.com