

PLT Virtual Workshop

PLT provides teachers, parents, youth group leaders, foresters and community members with fun, engaging activities and training to get children outside and learning about trees, forests and the broader environment!

- Earn quality professional development hours that you can complete in a flexible format, at your own pace
- Come away with ready-to-use lessons for the virtual classroom, like Looking at Leaves
- Receive support from Colorado PLT facilitators available throughout the training with Zoom office hours and class discussion boards
- Discover NGSS- aligned activities that get your students outdoors, engaging in placed-based learning in their own backyards
- Optional .5 graduate credit from Colorado School of Mines for an additional fee
