

ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE WITH

PROJECT LEARNING TREE

A healthy environment is something that everyone has the right to. This doesn't mean a healthy environment is available to everyone. Bring Environmental Justice to life in your teaching! Join PLT for this hands-on educator training.

Interpretation Services provided by the Community
Language Cooperative

YOU WILL

- Gain deeper understanding of Environmental Justice
- Examine the impact of your identity on student learning
- Empower students to take action with culturally responsive teaching

THROUGH

- Practice with PLT activities
- Guest speakers
- Personal Reflection
- Teambuilding
- Networking & Resource Sharing
- Lesson Planning

WHO: Middle-College Educators

WHEN: August 2nd 9am-3pm
Registration closes
July 28th

WHERE: CSU Spur in Denver

COST: $25
includes lunch
scholarships & travel funds
available

Questions?

Contact PLT State Coordinator:
Danielle Ardrey
970-732-0569
danielle.ardrey@colostate.edu

REGISTER
HERE

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS!

PLT is an initiative of SFI