

Find Your Place

Outdoor Scholarship

Pursue a career that supports Colorado's outdoors.

If you are pursuing an undergraduate degree, either as a continuation of study or after the postponement of study* and have demonstrated commitment to caring for our environment's natural resources, apply for a Grossman Scholarship offered by Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado (VOC).

VOC is offering $5,000-$10,000 scholarships for the 2026-27 academic year.

Applications for the 2026-27 school year are open through March 1, 2026.

Candidates must be Colorado residents who have demonstrated a commitment to caring for our environment's natural resources. Candidates must also be pursuing post-secondary education through an accredited environmental, natural resource, climate, or outdoor industry-related education program in Colorado.

To learn more and apply, visit

voc.org/scholarship

or contact scholarships@voc.org

*Postponement of studies includes, but is not limited to: individuals who postponed or were unable to complete their post-secondary education degree fully due to financial or familial circumstances, individuals taking a gap-year between their final year of high school and first year of undergraduate studies, and those seeking a new career path requiring post-secondary education.

Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado (VOC) is a 501c3 nonprofit, founded in 1984 to motivate and enable people to become active stewards of Colorado's natural resources.